Wipf & Stock Publishers, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Endorsements: "The bits and pieces people have written for this book represent a beautiful multicolored, multilayered mosaic of lessons they have learned about living life together through their association with the Waiters Union. These reflections highlight the little bit of progress we have made in the midst of our struggle to live with each other and work with one another. These stories of our successes, wrested from our failures, sustain our hope for learning more about how we can move towards a more authentic life together." --Dave Andrews and Helen Beazley, Editors "Raw, authentic, generous . . . Unprocessed, untreated, pure, organic even . . . There's no pretense, no effort to put on a mask or try to show a face other than that which is the normal and everyday . . . A 'big' experience, not half-hearted or sparse . . . The heart of community." --John Dacey, Community Minister, Mt. Druitt "This book celebrates the learnings of people who journeyed a week, a month, a decade, or more with that small network in West End. It's a celebration of many ordinary, everyday people living in and working with communities where not everyone has enough to eat, or a safe place to live, or access to a good education or adequate health care. It's a celebration of an authentic struggle to live grace and hope and love into the world. It's a celebration of a successful people's movement and a life-changing community immersion experience. I hope it is also an encouragement to help you move from where you are now to where you want to be." --Lin Hatfield Dodds, Director of Uniting Care Australia "Through the Waiters Union I have been able to...
